

Joy Biedermann

Deputy Yavapai County Attorney
Yavapai County Attorney's Office

Joy Biedermann has been a Deputy Yavapai County Attorney for over 3 years and handles a variety of civil issues, including asset forfeiture where she has successfully recovered funds for victims of fraud. First admitted in Arizona in 1997, she was in private practice and has also worked for the State of Alaska and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. She is currently licensed to practice law in Arizona and holds an inactive license to practice law in California.